

“Because after the founding of the Church of Christ, Judaea was to be punished for her treachery, the Lord fitly, after praising the devotedness of the Church in the person of the poor widow, goes out of the temple and foretold its coming ruin, and the contempt in which the buildings now so wonderful were soon to be held.”

Saint Bede the Venerable

On Sunday, December 2, we will dedicating the storage building behind the Father Price Center to the memory of Fred Schoenleber, who was so instrumental in its construction. Of course, Fred's major contribution to our parish plant was the reconstruction of the church building in 1984, converting what was a school into a church—something, that as he often said, they said could not be done. Fred also supplied our sanctuary with its elegant furniture.

Fred was always looking to be of service to our church in whatever way he could, and was constantly searching out new projects to undertake. We miss him dearly, and are grateful for all that he accomplished for us.

May the Lord give him eternal rest and reward for all his generous labors!
