

"If then with the most unjust judge the perseverance of the suppliant at length prevailed even to the fulfilment of her desire, how much more confident ought they to feel who cease not to pray to God, the Fountain of justice and mercy?"

MUSIC

Greetings Church Family!

MUSIC NOTES!

Themes found in today's Readings:

We are called to join Christ and to not lose heart. We must be steadfast in faith in God's mercy.

Responsorial: "Our help is from the Lord, who made heaven and earth." Psalm 121

*Looking forward to our Senior Lunch tomorrow. Please join us and welcome our guest speaker Donna Stephenson who will share her journey of healing as we honor Cancer Awareness Month.

*Thank you Father Joe for an inspiring homily last Sunday. The theme of "Thanksgiving" is such a beautiful reminder of our faith. Christian doctrine teaches us that gratitude is essential to our spiritual health; it also provides us an integral aspect of our fellowship with an invisible God.

*Be blessed this day and always! Michael
